Christoph Frei

Christoph Frei became the World Energy Council's fifth Secretary General in April 2009.

He has recently joined the board of the energy blockchain focused Energy Web Foundation. He has an assignment as Adjunct Professor and acts as Advisor to the President of the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (EPFL), Lausanne. Before joining the World Energy Council, Dr Frei was Senior Director, Energy Industries & Policy at the World Economic Forum (WEF) and a member of WEF's Executive Council (2001–2009). Previously he held various positions as Research Fellow and Lecturer at Swiss Federal Technical Institutes in Zurich (CEPE/ETHZ), Lausanne (EPFL) and Würenlingen (PSI).

Dr Frei's work and publications have covered energy scenarios, climate & labour market policy, energy water nexus and the future of utilities. He has initiated projects including EPFL's Roundtable on Sustainable Biofuels, the South Africa based Energy Access Partnership, and the World Economic Forum's Partnering Against Corruption Initiative, which in 2008 led Ethisphere to rank him among the 100 most influential people in business ethics.

World Energy Council

The World Energy Council is the principal impartial network of energy leaders and practitioners promoting an affordable, stable and environmentally sensitive energy system for the greatest benefit of all.

Formed in 1923, the Council is the UN accredited global energy body, representing the entire energy spectrum, with over 3000 member organisations in over 90 countries, drawn from governments, private and state corporations, academia, NGOs and energy stakeholders. We inform global, regional and national energy strategies by hosting high-level events, including the World Energy Congress and publishing authoritative studies, and work through our extensive member network to facilitate the world's energy policy dialogue.
